

February 28, 2009

Kurt Busch Racecar Simulator Challenge Event at Sierra Gold Ultra-Tavern

Golden Gaming and partner Kurt Busch celebrated the culmination of a month-long action-packed racing challenge (Photo: © Erik Kabik/ RETNA/ www.erikkabik.com) which took place at 32 PT's taverns during the month of February. The grand prize winner and top qualifier with the fastest simulator time raced NASCAR Nextel Cup Champion Kurt Busch in the final racecar simulator. The top qualifiers with the fastest recorded racecar simulator times from each PT's tavern location also raced head-to-head in a single elimination racecar simulator contest to become eligible for the grand prize package.

Guests included Golden Gaming Chief Operating Officer Steve Arcana, Spring Mountain Motorsports Ranch Owner John Morris and Kurt Busch's wife Eva Busch.

The top qualifier with the fastest race time won the grand prize, which included a Spring Mountain Motorsports Ranch Open Wheel Racing School package and a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to race NASCAR Nextel Cup Champion Kurt Busch in the racecar simulator. Other grand prizes included a Spring Mountain Motorsports Ranch one-day driving school for second to fourth place and a Pole Position race package for fifth to one hundredth place. One winner from each of the 32 PT's tavern locations throughout the Valley also won an autographed Kurt Busch Miller Lite racing hood with a purchase of a Miller Lite pint or mug.

Sierra Gold ultra-tavern is located on Jones & 215.

Kurt Busch at Racecar Simulator Challenge Event at Sierra Gold